

1. Read the story starter. Continue writing the story. Use as many long A words as you can. Use the picture bank to help you. Remember to sound out your words.

Once there was a snake on a train. It had a big brain and a long tail.

2. Underline all your long A spelling patterns. How many Long A words did you use in your story?