

1. Read the story starter. Continue writing the story. Use as many long O words as you can. Use the picture bank to help you. Remember to sound out your words.

Once there was a goat had a stone home.

He lived with a crow called Rose.

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

2. Underline all your long O spelling patterns. How many Long O words did you use in your story?