

Some of these words are hard to guess from the pictures, so here is some help: boy, toy, coy, annoy, joy, employ, royal, enjoy, oyster.

1. Read the story starter. Continue writing the story. Use as many OI and OY words as you can. Use the picture bank to help you. Remember to sound out your words.

Once upon a time there was a boy who went to the shops with a coin...

2. Underline all your OI and OY spelling patterns. How many OI and OY words did you use in your story?

